After two years of hard work, EKS consortium was glad to review the overall aim of the Intellectual Outputs and to discuss the up to date achieved results. The meeting was hosted by LABC on the 8th and 9th of September.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP
THE KEY TO SUCCESS

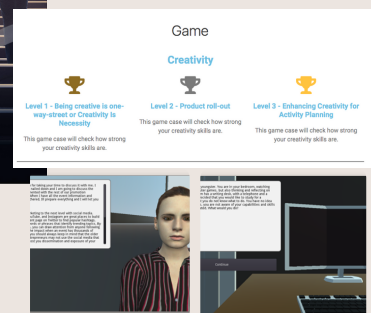

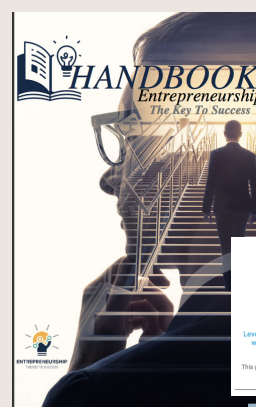

The BETA version of the EKS Didactic Handbook and EKS online game were tested in each partner country. The general impression from the piloting was summarised as positive.

All National Reports of the pilot testing have been completed by each partner organisation.

The feedbacks from the pilot tests are summarised in the TRANSNATIONAL REPORT FROM PILOTING, created by FyG and the consortium is currently working on the implementation of the final version of the EKS Didactic Handbook and EKS online game.
